

Module:

The Indian and Education

From the Publisher:

What have you always wanted to know about Indians? Do you think you should already know the answers—or suspect that your questions may be offensive? In matter-of-fact responses to over 120 questions, both thoughtful and outrageous, modern and historical, Ojibwe scholar and cultural preservationist Anton Treuer gives a frank, funny, and sometimes personal tour of what's up with Indians, anyway.

Available in e-format.

Suggested Readings for This Session:

❖ Education & the American Indian:

- “Why do some people use the word genocide ...” pp. 36-38
- “Is AIM good or bad?” pp. 109-110
- “Why don’t tribes do more to support language and culture?” pp. 121-122
- “What were the federal residential schools?” pp. 138-141
- “How come 50% of Indians are flunking ...?” pp. 141-142
- “Is there anything that works ... achievement gap?” pp. 142-143
- “How does No Child Left Behind affect Indian Country?” pp. 143-144
- “Do all Indians have a free ride to college?” pp. 144-145
- “Do Indians ever work together?” p. 156